OSD REVIEW COMPLETED

BEST COPY

AVAILABLE

* redri

December 5, 1957 NUMBER 5-1315.3

0SD (0S0)

Department of Defense Directive

SUBJECT

Policies Coverning Assignment of Hilitary Personnel to the Central Intelligence Agency

Reforence: (a) Department of Defense Directive 1315.3, entitled "Policies Governing Assignment of Military Personnel to the Central Intelligence Agency," dated 9 December 1952 (cancelled herein)

I. PUNFOSE

The purpose of this directive is to announce to all concorned policies governing the essignment of military paraconal to the Contral Intelligence Agency (CIA).

II. CHYPLATION

Reference (a) is superseded and cancelled on the effective date of this directive.

III. GREAL RULET CONSIDERATIONS

Bearypentation and Linkson

- Requirements. Certain military personnel should bo assigned to the CIA to provide adequate military participation and support at appropriate levels of the agency. This representation will be in conformity with Department of Defeuse/CIA policies. Personnel selected should be the best qualified and most experienced available, with a well-founded understanding of their own Service policies, programs and requirements.
- Assignment Qualifications. As far as practical, the Services should provide personnel to the CIA the ere adequately trained for the function which they are to perform insofar as the function is the of common concern, to relieve CIA of a requirement to furnish military-type training and indectrination.

SELHET

- Dilitary Technical Skills and Experience. Certain dilitary personnel should be assigned to CIA to fill approved billets requiring persons with technical skills and experience posuliar to the dilitary Services.
- Specialized Orgifications. The Military Services should not be requested to furnish military personned to CIA to fill billets requiring persons with language, even or other unusual skills, experience or qualifications, which are not intrinsic in military personnel, if such qualification is the primary basis for the request.

ii. Labor and Services.

- i. In general the Military Services should not be requested to assign personnel to CIA to perform housekeeping functions, communication or clerical dulies, to render medical support, or otherwise so be a source of labor and miscellameous services, if such duty is the primary basis for the request.
- Overeer, where a CIA activity is located near er within a U.S. military installation, the local military commander may, when requested by CIA, and hand on a specific agreement approved by the Military Service concerned, provide services of common concern, such as physical security, etc., to CIA se to other branches of the Government, provided that such services can be furnished within unknown local personnel allocations and subject to fiscal reimbursements where required. Such localities, or personnel involved, should not marrially be turned over to CIA administration.

C. Amote or Undesirable Posts.

The Military Services should not be requested to casign personnel to CIA to staff or support CIA installations in undesirable locations or daties except whose the assignment of military personnel is agreed to be the most prectical solution. In such cases CIA should exhaust every possibility to acquire the personnel needed from the U.S. and indigenous civilian takes pool.

ز و دارات

. Recell of CIA Employees.

Managally, recall of CIA employees to extended active additionly daty is not considered desirable.

The Angles and Requests.

improgrammed ClA requirements not unsicipated and procrased as part of annual personnel estimates, should revertheless be handled in the same manner as the seasual estimates, with such advance informal consultation as may be required to expedite the process.

F. Treining Agreements.

The provisions of this policy will not affect present or futers agreements which CIA may make with the corvices to provide military training for Junior office: Trainees of the Agency.

- IV. OFF) F OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FUNCTIONS.
 - A. Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) should continue to promine policies and procedures creating military personnel support of the CLA. The could receive CLA annual estimates of military parameter requirements along with general justification for for all new positions. The OSD should then review and process them to the Services for detailed considuation. After receipt of communications the Services. The OSD should review them and make a consolidated reply to the CLA.
 - Theoptions to any of the policies promulgated herein.
 The a unique and emergency besis, may be negotiated by CIA through the OSD.
- W. DEVASIDENTAL PROCESSING.
 - A. 180% Service will examine the CIA request for personnel, indicating recommended approval or disapproval to the OSD.

3

The Military Services should take full advantage of such information on acquired skills and experiences as can be made available, by mutual arrangements between CIA and the Services, on military personnel returning from assignment with CIA.

MPLEMENTATION.

This directive is effective immediately and the foregoing policies regarding military personnel assignment to CIA should be put into effect by each Military Service on a continuing basis at the earliest possible date.

Secretary of Defense